

Skydiving Proposal Community Feedback

The City of Cockburn received a Recreation and Leisure Traders Licence Application to use two areas of the City’s coastline as temporary landing zones for skydiving. One area at Coogee Beach and a second area at Jervoise Bay dog beach. As part of the application assessment, the City sought community feedback, between 19 February and 15 April 2024, to aid with the decision making process.

How we promoted the consultation

 Comment on Cockburn webpage.	 Letters to residents and businesses within 500m of landing sites.	 13 signs on the beach and the proposed temporary landing zones.
 Correspondence to known organisations using the proposed beaches.	 Two Public advertisements.	 Notices at City of Cockburn Libraries and City Administration building.

Top six feedback themes

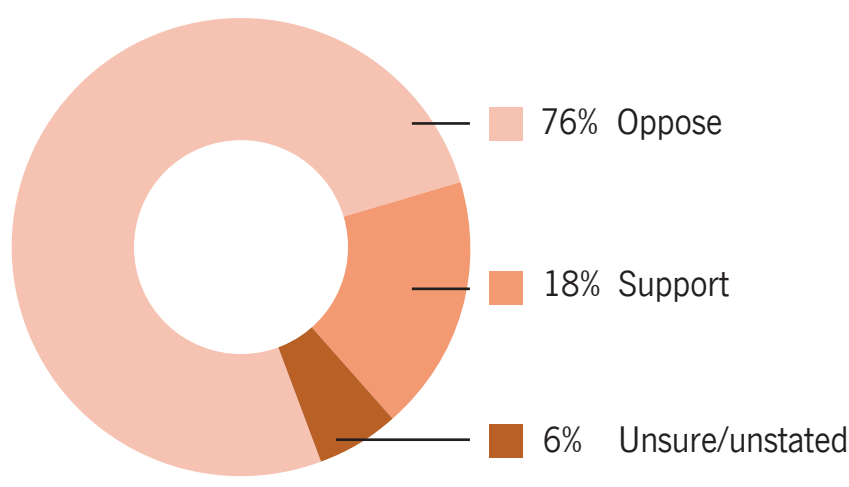

-  Impact on local community (reduced beach access for locals)
-  Enjoyed and sought after areas for dogs
-  Concerns regarding safety
-  A desire to retain the existing character and culture of the area
-  Existing busy recreation areas, with swimming, boating, and other activities already happening
-  Challenges relating to parking and traffic
